

Train the Trainer

A 3-day programme plus 1-day follow-up

Who for:

Trainers without formal training skills, and/or those who recognise the value of further creative approaches to devising and delivering sessions and programmes designed to engage and motivate learners. This is the course for trainers who want to progress beyond the standard slide presentation!

In this programme, you will learn and practise:

- How to clarify and work from ultimate learning goals – these become your beacon!
- How to plan, structure and deliver a training input which will engage and maintain learners' attention and motivation
- How to use skilful questioning to elicit and develop learning, through managing an interactive group discussion
- How to design and build into your training, relevant interesting and enjoyable exercises and activities to keep sessions engaging and participative
- How to assess the effectiveness of learning, plus strategies for fixing things if something hasn't worked!
